

1 amendment.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Very well, proceed.

3 DELEGATE MITCHELL: In opposition to the amend-
4 ment presented by the Minority.

5 In 1931 I came out of the School of Education
6 of the University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor's Degree 7 in education, and back in those days, the educators of the 8 University of Pennsylvania defined equal educational 9 opportunity as Delegate Cardin and some of those who have 10 spoken for the Minority Report defined it. Further,
11 the Advisory Committee on Education of the Federal govern-
12 ment in a report, The Federal Government, in 1938, defined
13 equal educational opportunity in those terms so that equal 14 educational opportunity has never meant solely, or has 15 never been measured solely in terms of dollars.

16 I find further, and I am concerned by the arro-
17 gance of some of our young lawyers and bright reformers
18 who are not educators, who have not had a background as 19 teachers, and it may not appear to them contemptuous, but 20 as we sit here as parents and former teachers, and some of us
21 former educators, and listen to some of the educators who
